

Ephrata Recreation Department Mission & Philosophy Statement

The mission of the Ephrata Recreation Department is to develop parks, facilities and programs that improve the quality of life in Ephrata for all of our citizens and visitors while fostering a sense of community and pride.

Splash Zone Aquatic Center Mission & Philosophy Statement

The goal of the Splash Zone is to enhance the quality of life for all citizens in Ephrata, to establish a well functioning and well-maintained Aquatic Center that will offer recreational opportunities for people of all ages and needs. We will provide a safe and wholesome environment for families, individuals and visitors to enjoy recreational and educational water activities.

TEAM

As a team, the Splash Zone staff can create a facility enjoyed by all, staff and public. We must all work together, communicating our concerns, thoughts, feelings and ideas to each other in a thoughtful, organized manner that is informative and professional. There is no "I" in "TEAM." If you have a problem with another member of the staff, take it to that person, do not talk about others behind their back. If you cannot take the issue to the person, take it up with a supervisor. Our goal should be to not only make this a great place to visit, but a great place to work.

Thus, it's mutually beneficial to treat patrons in a courteous, professional manner.

A positive, friendly, caring attitude toward employees and guests will require work to develop and sustain, but the rewards will be worthwhile and fun. This manual has been created to provide you with a reference guide for your job. As a representative of the Ephrata Recreation Department, you are required to make yourself familiar with these items, if you are not already. Together these materials will assist you in understanding the guidelines within which we work.

Before you begin your first shift of work, you will be given an orientation of the facility and policies in place.

Public Relations

Employment at an aquatic facility is vastly different from at an ordinary pool. Due to public and political obligation, an Aquatic Center must approach daily operations in a more business-oriented manner. We must have a higher level of understanding to ensure our customers are having an enjoyable experience. We must approach them with more patience and go out of our way to help them comprehend our policies and procedures.

Always treat a customer in the manner you would want to be treated. A person's leisure time is very important to them, and no matter how tempted you may be, always be courteous to them.

REMEMBER:

- Our guests are the reason we are here.
- Our guests are not dependent on us. We are dependent on them.
- Our guests are not an interruption, but the sole purpose of our work.
- Without guests, we will not be here.
- They have dedicated their money and time to us. We owe them a great leisure experience.
- Always take the time to greet a patron. Make eye contact and say, "Hello," or, "May I Help You."

terminating the employee.

See employee disciplinary guidelines matrix at the end of this manual.

Employee Disciplinary Action Guidelines:

Under certain situations an employee may be terminated immediately. These situations include but are not limited to:

1. Theft of any kind.
2. Assault or threatening behavior.
3. Sexual Harassment.
4. Using or being under the influence or after effects of alcohol or drugs.
5. Use of tobacco products while in the facility.
6. Lying to or deceiving a supervisor.
7. Any abuse or neglect of a policy/procedure which places a person in danger.

At other times an employee found to have disregarded a policy or procedure, the following steps may generally be taken: First offense or minor infractions will consist of a documented verbal warning. A verbal warning may be given for things such as tardiness, foul language, inconsiderate behavior toward others, falling below standards in a guard or instructor audit, etc. A verbal warning may be administered by a member of the management team.

A second violation will result in another verbal explanation of the offense, accompanied by a written explanation in letter form. The explanation will include a set amount of time, considered probationary time, which the employee must adhere to the policies and procedures as set forth in the letter or face termination. This is documented as a written warning and can only be administered by the Department Director.

However, a violation may result in suspension without pay, at the discretion of the Department Director.

If the employee cannot meet the standards set forth in the written warning within the set amount of probationary time, the employee may then be terminated. The manager will then complete the appropriate paperwork,

Job Performance and Evaluations:

Both lifeguards and instructors can expect to be evaluated on a regular basis as time permits the management team. It is the intention of the management to evaluate/audit each staff member at least 3 times each season. If an employee is audited, they will be called in to meet with the Manager and/or Head Guard to discuss the score and how a higher score and better level of awareness can be achieved (if necessary). These evaluations are intended to be a tool for improvement and constructive, however, they may be taken to reflect your performance. If an employee receives a score below acceptable, it will be treated as a first offense on policy, and a verbal warning given as described in the disciplinary section of this manual. Again scoring below the acceptable range will be treated as a written warning and after a third below acceptable rating the employee may be terminated. Video tape recorders may be used at any time. Poor ratings may affect future pay rate increases.

Audit Criteria:

Surveillance is very important. According to Washington State Administrative Code, a guard must have a 30 second response time. This is in conjunction with the American Red Cross 10/20 response time. You must scan your area in ten seconds and be able to reach a victim in twenty. This can only be measured if your head is moving from side to side while scanning. WAC also addresses distraction of duty, or RID Factors; stating that a guard should be doing nothing but guarding. Distractions include talking to friends, daydreaming, etc. At no time will you be asked by a manager to perform duties that will interfere with your guarding.

It is vitally important that these evaluations be seen by the employee as a tool to improve job performance and document that the public are being protected by competent personnel. They are not intended to be threatening, but to be a constructive form of correction.

In-service training:

In-service training is required and will be held at various times throughout the season. It is mandatory thus employees will be paid for their time. It is designed to be a forum through which all employees are given new materials and techniques or practice those which they should be already familiar with.

New employees will be given an in-service training/orientation session before they are scheduled to work their first shift.

If an employee is excused from an inservice they will be required to make the inservice up before they are able to work again. It is the responsibility of the employee to schedule this make up training.

Certifications:

It is the responsibility of the employee to ensure that all certifications required for their relevant position be kept current. The employee must provide a copy of all current certifications to the manager. At times throughout the summer, CPR for the Professional Rescuer and the ability to a re-certify your American Red Cross Lifeguarding may or may not be offered.

Suggestions, Concerns & Complaints:

Staff members with suggestions and/or complaints should present those issues directly with the supervisor at an appropriate time and in an appropriate manner. Calm, professionally thought out and presented materials will be considered much more valid than hasty, overly emotional sessions.

Suspected or Concern over Child Abuse:

As a person who has frequent contact with children, we have a moral obligation to report any circumstance in which there is a, "reason to believe," abuse or neglect of a child to the proper authorities. Consult with management if you believe a child may be a victim of abuse.

Crisis Communication:

In a matter of crisis or emergencies that may occur at the Aquatic facility, at no time should information be divulged to anyone except City Staff, Police, Fire or other people as directed by the management. At no time should information be divulged to members of the media, or persons who may or may not depict themselves as representatives of any group, including but not limited to the person(s) involved in the incident, unless so directed by the City Administrator, City Attorney, or Recreation/PR Director. When answering questions always give facts, never give opinions.

It is important that the identities of those involved be protected from the media. Leaking the names out to the press could be detrimental to the families. It is for their sake we let the proper authorities handle any press relations.

In the circumstance that Splash Zone will be closed, always refer the public in a manner which will not allow misinterpretation as to the nature of the emergency or closure. Example, "Splash Zone is closed temporarily, we anticipate reopening at 'blank time' on 'such date.' We apologize for the inconvenience."

Blood-borne Pathogens:

It is required that before applying any kind of first aid, latex gloves must be put on by the person rendering first aid. It is also required that a face mask or pocket mask be used while performing rescue breathing or CPR. Clean up of bodily fluids must be completed by using appropriate materials, including latex gloves and goggles or other protective wear if necessary. All employees exposed to the potential of blood-borne pathogens may be required to take blood tests to establish immunity levels. Failure to adhere to this policy will constitute an automatic written warning.

Lifeguard Information:

Lifeguards and Instructors must always follow procedure as set forth by the American Red Cross and the facility's emergency action plan as practiced during in-service training, when performing a rescue or rendering first aid.

Sexual Harassment:

According to the City of Ephrata Policies and Procedures Manual Number 3020 B, Sexual Harassment is covered as followed:

“Sexual harassment has been defined by state and federal regulations as a form of sex discrimination. It can consist of unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, the display of derogatory posters, cartoons or drawings, or other physical or verbal conduct of a sexual nature by supervisors, department heads or others in the workplace.”

If any employee of Splash Zone feels that he/she is a target of sexual harassment or believes they have witnessed sexual harassment, a complaint providing as much specific detail as possible, shall be submitted directly to the Recreation/P.R. Director. The Recreation/P.R. Director shall initiate a thorough investigation in consultation with the proper City personnel. If the Recreation/P.R. Director is the target of the complaint, submit the complaint to the City Administrator who shall initiate the investigation.

The City of Ephrata holds a no tolerance stance on sexual harassment and clearly states that it shall be grounds for immediate dismissal.

The Splash Zone Management team will not tolerate any form of sexual harassment and stands firm with the City of Ephrata in the ideals and beliefs that gender is not to be used in any form to make personal or professional gain.

Example Opening and Closing Procedures

- In your chair at your scheduled shift time
- In your correct uniform, with your sunglasses, hat and whistle

- With sun screen on

At closing:

- You do not get out of your chair until your area is clear

 Whenever performing a rescue, always take and use your rescue tube.

2. The nearest guards determine whether their assistance is required (spinal). If so, give assistance. Assistance may include unhooking ropes, placing tube under rescuer, or notifying other staff to bring a backboard. If assistance is not needed, join other guards by standing on station with rescue tube held up over head. All guards must acknowledge the incident and adjust zones appropriately.
3. If situation so requires, have guard on break notify EMS. If EMS is not required, head guard or extra guard replaces guard who made rescue in rotation.

Lost Child/Parents

In the case of a found child who has lost their parent/guardian:

1. Try to get information from the child (name, name of parents, etc.).
2. Ask the child who they came with and where they put their towels when they came in.
3. Comfort the child throughout the process.
4. Go to the area the child indicated and look for a parent.
5. If no parent is found, bring the child to the office, show the child as you walk and have the child look for a parent/guardian as they walk.
6. If you reach the office and still haven't found a parent, allow the child to sit with a manager and wait for the parent no longer than five minutes.
7. Make an announcement over the PA system that you have a lost child, and if the parent can describe the child to you they can claim them. Send staff into the locker room and ask for the parent.

8. If a parent still does not claim the child, contact the Police Department. Wait with the child until Police arrive.

If a parent reports a missing child:

1. Get a description of the child
2. Share that description and last known location with the front desk staff to ensure the child doesn't leave (kidnapped).
3. Share the description of the child on the radios, so the staff can look while scanning.
4. Walk around the pool with the parent to try and identify the child, informing other staff to keep an eye out for the child. Send staff through the locker rooms to search for the child. Keep in mind certain age groups will be drawn to play in certain areas, so look there first.
5. Staff will initiate a pool break, which will clear the pool and allow you to review rules and page the child.
6. If the child does not respond, contact the Police Department at the parental unit's request.

Emergency Procedures

Always follow any medical precautions as detailed in an American Red Cross First Aid and/or CPR for the Professional Rescuer Course. Never attempt to remedy situations beyond your specific level of training. When in doubt contact the Management, or an EMS professional, for any medical situations of which you do not feel qualified or capable to handle. Always error on the side of safety. Any incident which requires first aid of any kind requires an incident report form be completed and turned in before you leave for the day.

Medical:

1. Any emergency medical situations that need EMS as described in an American Red Cross class, or beyond the scope of treatment learned in American Red Cross First Aid/CPR Training, should be brought to the attention of Emergency Medical Services, or 911.
2. If American Red Cross First Aid/CPR Training can remedy the situation, apply the appropriate treatment, and then notify EMS if necessary.
3. If EMS is notified for any medical situation, contact the Recreation/P.R. Director or City Administrator as needed.
4. The staff member should not transport any subject at any time under any circumstances. If a parent/guardian, Manager and/or Recreation/ P.R. Director cannot be reached, contact the police department and explain the situation to them. They will transport the subject or contact the proper authorities to transport the subject.

Fire:

1. Immediate evacuation of the Aquatic Center is required. Direct all patrons to the gate farthest from the fire.
2. Check the building if at all possible while yelling, "Fire, everyone outside!" If possible, check all storage areas, locker areas, offices, concessions building and the maintenance room.
3. Have a staff member call 911. This person may have to use the payphone or a nearby home. They should also call the Recreation/P.R. Director and/or City Administrator.
4. It is vitally important that all patrons, especially youth, be accounted for and, "contained," in the same area after the incident until released by the appropriate personnel, be it Police, Fire, Medical or Parks and Recreation staff.

Chemical Leak:

1. If it is discovered that chlorine is leaking contact the Recreation/P.R. Director and appropriate Parks Maintenance personnel.
2. Keep people and property away from any spill. A strong odor may cause headaches and nausea. Liquid chlorine is generally considered very safe.

Exposure Control Procedure

Always use barriers to prevent direct contact or exposure to the fluid. (Gloves, goggles, etc.) Clear path from excretion/contaminated material to nearest drain. Apply a generous amount of disinfectant. Scrub with brush and wipe up with paper towels. Re-apply disinfectant. Rinse with a very generous amount of water, again ensuring that path of runoff to drain is clear.

Throw away used paper towels.

Discard gloves. Ensure careful removal of gloves to minimize possible secondary exposure. Return equipment to proper area.

IF AT ANY TIME, YOU BELIEVE YOU MAY HAVE BEEN EXPOSED TO BLOOD OR OTHER BODILY FLUID IN A MANNER WHICH MAY PLACE YOU AT RISK OF INFECTION, NOTIFY A SUPERVISOR IMMEDIATELY.

Lightning

Lightening is a dangerous and often avoidable situation in the Aquatic Industry. Always follow the guidelines set by the National Lightning Safety Institute. Immediately clear the pool. Direct all patrons to the appropriate locker rooms as quickly as possible. Do not allow people to take shelter under Umbrellas, near guard stands, near picnic shelter, near slides or diving boards and keep them away from the flagpole. All could act as lightening rods. Keep area clear until 30 minutes have passed from the last sighting or sound.

Robbery:

Do whatever the perpetrator asks, do not argue or aggravate them.

Once the perpetrator has left, notify a Manager to call 911.

Fill out an incident report form as soon as possible, entailing physical characteristics of the individual.

Bomb Threat:

Notify 911 and a manager immediately.

Clear the area in an orderly manner.

Attempt to direct guests away from potential hazards.

Do not re-enter the building or allow others to re-enter until proper authorities give permission.

Power Outage:

Clear facility in an orderly manner. Notify Maintenance Department and Manager. Do not allow anyone to ride slides or use other amenities.

Earthquake:

Stay indoors. Take cover under a desk or doorway.

Watch for falling or unstable objects, including glass windows.

Evacuate building after quake has stopped. Do not re-enter building.

Other situations which may be of concern may include gang activity and mischievous teens or youth. Be pro-active with these situations.

Communicate your concerns to a manager and express why you are concerned.

MSDS:

Material Safety Data Sheets are documents that contain information about any hazardous material located within the facility.
